Restructuring. Rethinking. Reengineering. No matter how you describe it, the American auto industry is in the midst of a fundamental redefinition of how cars are designed, built and sold. It is at precisely a time like this that your team needs the assurance and expertise of an accounting firm who knows your business.

Boyer & Ritter understands the auto dealership world inside and out. As home to one of the largest specialized auto dealership accounting practices in the Mid-Atlantic region, our team has provided business solutions to more than 160 dealerships for over eighty years. From inventory valuation to risk assessment, and from cash flow analysis to compensation planning, B&R's Dealership Services Group can help you effectively position your dealership for the future.

B&R is a founding member of the AutoCPA Group, the oldest nationwide association of CPA firms specializing in servicing automobile dealerships throughout the United States and Canada (over 1,700 dealers). We believe our specialization in this area makes us the strongest Dealership Services Group in our market area.

With the breadth of our experience and depth of staff resources, we deliver cost-effective industry-specific services through the B&R Advantage, our firm's unique approach to each client engagement. We are committed to providing the resources and knowledge of a larger firm, with the personal experience and partner involvement you would expect from a local one.

From assurance services to internal process reviews, and from succession planning to tax strategies, the B&R team can advise you on virtually every aspect of your business.
